Shri M. K. Bhandari, for the workman.

None, for the respondent-management.

AWARD

This reference has been referred to this court by the Hon'ble Governor of Haryana,—vide his order No. ID/ED/51/83/45185—90, dated 2nd September, 1983, under section 10(i)(c) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, for adjudication of the industrial dispute existing between Shri Ajit Singh, workman and the respondent-management of M/s. Elites Engineers and Manufacturers, 67 D.L.F., Industrial Estate, Faridabad. The term of the reference was :—

Whether the termination of services of Shri Ajit Singh, workman, was justified and in order ? If not, to what relief is he entitled ?

The management was proceeded ex parte,—vide order, dated 8th August, 1984 as none appeared for them. He was previously represented by Shri R. P. Singh. According to the averment in the claim statement he was employed by the respondent on 6th May, 1981. He proceeded on sanctioned leave from 18th November, 1982 to 18th December, 1982. He had to join duty on 19th December, 1982 but he reported for duty on 21st December, 1982 as he was feeling un-well.

In ex parte evidence the workman supported his averments. He has also produced Ex. W-1 order showing that he was proceeded on sanctioned leave. It is clear that the services of the workman could not be terminated on 18th December, 1982 as he was on sanctioned leave. The termination of services amounts to retrenchment and provisions of section 25-F are to be complied with before terminating the services of the workman, which were not complied with in this case. I, therefore, give the award that the order of termination of services of the workman is illegal. He is entitled to reinstatement with continuity of service and full back wages.

R. N. SINGAL,

Dated the 11th September, 1984.

Presiding Officer,
